

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

DOLLENE C. JONES,
Plaintiff,
v.
JEFFREY LEWIS, et al.,
Defendants.

Case No. 20-cv-00385-SI

ORDER GRANTING PLAINTIFF'S
MOTION FOR LEAVE TO FILE FIRST AMENDED COMPLAINT AND
DENYING DEFENDANTS' MOTION
TO DISMISS AS MOOT; VACATING
UPCOMING DATES; STAYING CASE
UNTIL JUNE 1, 2020 TO ALLOW
PLAINTIFF TIME TO FIND COUNSEL

Re: Dkt. Nos. 10, , 11

Plaintiff, who is pro se, has requested leave to file a first amended complaint in response to defendants' motion to dismiss the original complaint. Plaintiff's motion also states that she is seeking counsel and she requests time to do so.

The Court GRANTS plaintiff's motion and DENIES defendants' motion to dismiss as moot. In light of plaintiff's intention to seek counsel to represent her, the Court finds that it is in the interest of judicial efficiency to STAY this case until June 1, 2020. The April 24, 2020 initial case management conference is VACATED. Plaintiff's first amended complaint shall be filed by June 1, 2020. If plaintiff retains counsel prior to June 1, plaintiff shall inform the Court by letter and the Court will lift the stay and schedule an initial case management conference.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
